Dear IPM prayer partners & supporters,

September 2021

Greetings from Iquitos, Peru. I pray the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ is reigning in your hearts and lives. I am so grateful to be a part of the IPM family. Thank you for your part in sustaining us, both spiritually and materially.

I thank God for the family He has given me. Though my wife's health is not good, in spite of everything, we remain united in the same purpose of glorifying God with our lives. Our oldest son, Kerwin Gregorio, turns 16 years old this year and will finish his secondary studies. We are so happy to announce that he decided he wants to study theology at a Baptist seminary in the city of Trujillo, Peru.

Remodeling the Church

As far as ministry is concerned, we are currently remodeling the church temple, looking to improve the space God has given to us and where sweet fellowship occurs among the brotherhood. We thank God for the youth ministry growth we are seeing. Youth are being strengthened in their walk with the Lord and are even making decisions to serve Him. Five young men have decided to travel next year to study theology in the city of Trujillo. Please pray for them, along with my son - that the Lord might lead and direct them in their decisions.

From November 26th-28th, we will hold a youth conference in the community of Cochiquinas along the Amazon River. The conference will cost $700. This will serve as preparation for the next youth camp, Resaca de Peruate, scheduled for February 8th-13th in 2022. Please pray that God will be glorified and young lives impacted by His Word.

God has blessed the new works in San Pedro de Huashalado, San Pedro de Marupa, and Huanta. Each church has their respective leaders, pastoring their flock. Please pray for these new churches and the men who lead them.

Lastly, we praise God for the part He gave us in counseling three couples to fix their situations before God, who recently married and were baptized.

Recently married & baptized believers

Thank you so much for your partnership with us in prayer. Without you and your intercession to God on our behalf, we could do nothing.

May God continue to bless you,
Pastor Aladino Gomez & Family
