Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

December 2022

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. Luke 2:10-11

May God bless you all. Our desire is that you find yourselves enjoying the blessings that we have in Christ. God gave us these marvelous blessings by sending His beloved Son to die and rise again for our justification. It is a privilege to serve our God. While we do so, we experience his grace. We continue to preach the powerful message of salvation to the lost and edify the saints with The Holy Scriptures for the glory of God.

Ordination of my son-in-law

Last October, God gave us the privilege of participating in the ordination of my son-in-law, José (pictures on the right) The senior pastor of the church served as moderator. The candidate for ordination and his wife responded favorably to the questions from the four pastors. The time was longer than what was anticipated, but the council voted unanimously with the approval of the ordination candidate. Finally, we laid our hands on brother José and prayed for him. We had a good fellowship afterward eating a delicious birria.

God gave us the blessing of having the Farley family with us

Brother Charles and his wife, Joan, both of whom work in the education department of IPM, visited us to give some teaching. Charles taught on the topic of "Biblical Finance" (pictured below). During the services in the church, Charles preached the Word of God to us, and Joan taught the teachers, which was very interesting and received well by the people. We hope that God gives us the wisdom to use the teaching we have received. Brother Farley donated some books on the topic of "Biblical Finance." Several brothers have taken up the challenge to study the subject. At the end of the class, Sister Farley shared some small gifts for the brothers who participated in the teaching.

Funeral service

The Bible says: "The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth." Ecclesiastes 7:4. Recently, Sister Angélica Pulido, who had been sick for a few months, left to be with the Lord. Thank God, we preached the message of salvation and sang together at the funeral service. We ask God to comfort the family and save those who are not yet saved.

The youth of the church

Some young people from the church sang a special hymn, and my sister, Noritza, accompanied them on the piano. God gave a blessing to the young people of the church as they were able to participate in a meeting with the young people of another church. They enjoyed some games, Bible questions, and two messages from God's Word. Finally, they had a good time eating delicious food and enjoying the fellowship together.

Prayer Requests:

1. May God bless brother Uriel Chávez González, who is working in the youth ministry.
2. May God provide for the construction of the building for the church.
3. For the salvation of souls and for the grace of God to reach them with the gospel.
4. For the children's club of the church, that more brothers will get involved to minister to children.
5. May God give us the wisdom to serve Him in the church.

Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year

May God allow us this Christmas and New Year to have “great joy,” not because we have an excellent dinner, nor because we are with our loved ones, nor because we fulfill our best desires. But let us have great joy because we know Christ as personal savior and want to worship Him as the angels did when giving the message to the shepherds. Your brothers in Christ also wish you a Merry Christmas and blessed new year!
