Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

April 2023

Please receive this cordial greeting on behalf of our family. First of all, we want to let you know about my wife's health. At this time, she is completing her fifth month with the pacemaker, and, thank God, it is allowing her to better normalize her heart function. Also, at the moment, her diabetes is being controlled with insulin. It has been three months since the doctors recommended this, and, at this time, she is still resting, which limits what she can do physically.

Brothers, despite these struggles, we do not stop preaching the Gospel, and we continue with discipleship in each conference that we hold every month with great success.

The obstacles that we are having in our country has caused an increase the price of food, and the rise in fuel prices makes it a little difficult to travel to visit our ministry works in the community. It is for this reason that, for now, we are carrying out discipleship and teaching for the children through conferences combining the 7 churches.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- ⇒ Brothers, we ask for your prayers for the health of my wife (Blanca Teagua Ortiz), for our ministry in Mazán, and for the other churches along the Napo River (Philippians 4:13).
- ⇒ Pray for the renovation of the church building.
- ⇒ Pray for the discipleship of 40 children.
- ⇒ Pray for the workshop to be held on May 15

We thank you in advance for your prayers on our behalf.

The pictures on the next page are from the conference held in the Indiana district.

Your servant for Christ,
Marcial Murayari
