

August 2025

Greetings, beloved! I trust that this finds you well, as we are here in Nyahururu, Kenya. The Lord has been faithful and gracious to us.

Family

My family is doing great, and we are thankful for God's many blessings in the past quarter. My wife and daughters are all healthy and growing in the knowledge of our Savior. Thank you for your continued prayers and support. Please pray for us as we are planning to visit our family in Zambia. We have been praying and planning for this for some time, and we are trusting God that we will manage to travel at the end of this year.

Silale

We are so grateful to God for the gift of our local church in Silale led by Pastor Joseph Lochodo. God has been very good to the church and has provided in amazing ways in the last one year. The church has seen many people come to the Savior and obey in water baptism.

We have seen God's hand in the recent construction of a parsonage. God provided funds through IPM. The house is not complete to a usable stage; we still need about $1,600 to bring it to full completion. Pastor Joseph has moved in with his family, and we are grateful that our missionary pastor has a decent place to call home. This has been a prayer of many years, and God chose to answer this prayer through God's servants in partnership with IPM. May the Lord bless all who believed in our vision, prayed for the project, and supported this work.

Umoja Mbuyu

In the last newsletter, I highlighted our Umoja Mbuyu Church plant and her current needs. The need for a meeting place is still a pressing one. We have a budget of $18,380 for a decent building in our church plot. The situation is dire, as we are in a rainy season, and the number of members has grown. We moved to our land, and we have been raising money to buy iron sheets for a temporary structure. The photos included show the current state of the temporary structure at Umoja Mbuyu.

Upcoming Events

Pray for these upcoming events. Our prayer is for financial provision and for the Gospel proclamation planned.
