The MOYANO FAMILY

Dear fellow supporters!

How encouraging it is for us to know that our brothers and sisters, who are far away, remember us in prayer and help us financially so that we can continue traveling, serving, and helping, by the grace of the Lord.

We are very grateful to the Lord because the opportunities to serve are endless. There is great need in Spain. It is a Western country, with a Catholic foundation, but now, in general, they are terribly indifferent to everything that relates to God.

The Lord, in His grace, has brought much migration from Latin America, and in every church we attend, we see this movement of Latinos. For us who have been in Uruguay for 25 years, it is not difficult to understand and empathize with them. For our Spanish brothers and sisters, it is very encouraging. It has also brought the reality of brothers and sisters who come with different doctrinal and cultural backgrounds, and teaching is very necessary. So, my wife and I are helping in those areas, as much as we can.

After helping out at the Valle Hebrón church, we spent this time serving together at Camp Monte Calvario in Guadalajara, Spain. We also preached and taught at churches in Barcelona.

Now we're preparing for several things. This coming weekend, we'll be at a church in Tarragona for an evangelism campaign.

In mid-October, we'll be heading north to Asturias for several weeks to fill in for Brother Buker, a missionary. Upon our return, we'll be in Uruguay and Paraguay from November 6th to December 16th, preaching and serving our beloved brothers and sisters at the church in Pocitos and the deaf church. Then we'll fly to Paraguay to visit our daughter and her family and enjoy our beloved grandchildren.

We're staying in touch regarding Israel, informing the brothers and sisters, and hoping in the Lord that He will help us and allow us to go help with the work in Galilee, around March.

The Lord is in heaven! And the Lord is with us! Nothing that happens in this world is beyond His control. His coming is near, brothers and sisters! Let us take advantage of our lives and our time to take the gospel wherever He places us.

Thank you for the great effort you make in helping us and praying faithfully for us! Don't forget that you also go with us and are part of the work.

God bless you so much. We love you so much!
