Brothers and fellow ministers,

January 2026

Greetings in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ. Through this message, we want to inform you, first of all, about the health of my dear wife, Blanca Azucena Teagua Ortiz. Regarding her pacemaker, she is doing well at the moment. Thank you for your many prayers for her. Regarding our trip to Lima for her check-up, when we went to get the referral appointment in Iquitos, the doctors told us that it is not yet possible to get an appointment since the hospitals are overwhelmed due to the Christmas and New Year holidays. Therefore, they told us to wait for available appointment dates. Meanwhile, our son, Jesús Daniel, has become ill again, and he has been diagnosed with early signs of epilepsy. We are treating him with vitamins to control the seizures that he experiences every month. We ask for your prayers, dear brothers and sisters, for our son, Jesús Daniel.

Thank you for bringing these requests to the throne of grace through the sacrifice of Calvary.

Prayer requests:

1. The need for a motorboat.
2. The construction of the church
3. The construction of the pastoral house
4. The children's ministry
5. For evangelism, discipleship, and multiplication.

Below are some photos of the ministry in the Napo River region, Mazán, Peru.
