Dear Brethren,

SEPTEMBER 2026

We greet you in the good name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It is a joy to write to you again and tell you how the Lord has been guiding and blessing our ministry in Guatemala.

Our Family

Our son, Elias, finished his theological studies in July. Now, he has come home and is planning to get married during the month of October. It is a joy to see him preaching and teaching in our church. Cynthia and Graciela are serving the Lord with us and keeping up with their studies. Barbara and I are getting old, but doing well. I thank God for my wife, who is a godly woman and a hard working lady.

Special Visit

Last week, we had a visit from my pastor and his wife, Jose and Flor. They serve in San Francisco, California. It was a joy to see them, and blessed fellowship. He also preached at our church; our fellowship was great.

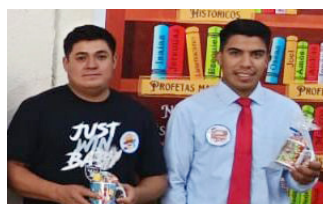

A Family Giving Fruit for the Lord

Around 8 years ago, Leonardo Ajuix and his brother, Jorge, visited our church for a Wednesday prayer meeting. Now their parents, sisters and brothers, and extended family are saved. All of them have a desire to live for the Lord.

New Souls for the Lord

Two months ago, a 30-year-old named Cesar was saved. His wife was saved around two years ago. Also, Jose Avendaño, a 65-year-old man, was saved about a month ago. Brandon, a 23-year-old man, was also recently saved. Please pray for them. Let's not forget going door-to-door to reach others for the Lord.

Special petitions:

1. Please keep praying for brother Otilio Melendez, who is suffering from Leukemia. He is 18-years-old.
2. Also, pray for brother Saul, a 49-year-old, with cancer. He will have surgery on September 7th.

I am always grateful for the privilege of being able to serve our God. We are grateful for His people who have not left us and have faithfully supported us materially and in prayer.

Please pray for:

1. For our health
2. For guidance and wisdom as we make decisions in the ministry
3. For the new believers
4. That God may send more laborers into His harvest
5. For wisdom as we deal with the day-to-day duties of ministry
6. For the health of sisters Enma, Eva, Virginia, and Victorina
7. For the salvation of Otto, Manolo, Amilcar, Francisco, Raúl, and Veronica
